Mayson 200 is the ideal piece of furniture for a classic living room with some modern touches. It represents the most sophisticated elegance of Smaniacraftsmanship and its leather piping creates soft edges just along the wooden structure. The leather adheres to the finishing with impeccable precision and the steel enlightens the doors and the shelf thus balancing the refined aesthetic of Mayson 200.

Whether it is in a luxury living room or in a dining room, this sideboard can contain objects both inside, thanks to the space concealed by the finished doors, and outside, on the shelf.

Mayson 200 can be realized in several materials to satisfy your own style. Match the wood finishing with your favourite metal and leather and create your exclusive sideboard.
